ISA Support Mentor - Ipswich

ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Adam!

I live with my partner in Ipswich and love outdoor activities such as rock climbing and high rope activities. I'm described by my friends and colleagues as a fun loving people person that loves animals!

I have lived experience with caring for a family member with Level 3 autism which has inspired me to make a difference in the lives of people with disabilities. Giving back is something that I feel really adds value and purpose to my life.
