ISA Support Mentor - Logan

ABOUT ME

Hi, my name's Amy!

I'm a mum to 7 children and I love cooking, baking, and going camping. I also enjoy getting involved in the community, or just going out to go shopping, to the movies, or to the beach.

One of my passions is helping people find what motivates them, and doing whatever I can to help them grow as a person and realise their dreams and goals.

EXPERIENCE

I started my career with disability support in aged care and found a passion in helping people to live their best life, despite their limitations.

I have since worked with people from all walks of life with all kinds of disabilities and am keen to continue expanding my experiences.
