EXPERIENCE

I have a background in both inclusive education and career and employment development. I've worked as a teacher aide and developed skills and understanding of inclusive education through working in the SEP department. I've also worked as a career outreach mentor, which involved school presentations about future careers and trajectory, developing skills relevant to the workforce and preparation for work.

EDUCATION & QUALIFICATIONS

- Currently undertaking a Bachelor of Education, majoring in Learning Support with History as my teaching area minor.
- Previously studied a Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Government and International Relations [2018-2020].

ABOUT ME

Hi, my name's Amelia!

I am extremely passionate about working in disability support and wish to combine it with my teaching aspirations to help people make the most of their lives.

I enjoy being creative and being active. My hobbies include cooking (and food in general!), yoga, and football. In the past I have competed at a high level in futsal. I also have a young cat named Thomas and love animals.
