ISA Support Mentor - Ipswich

EXPERIENCE

I am a Youth Worker who has implemented activities for young people. One of my biggest achievements was creating the Graffiti Project to encourage young people to gain art skills and get paid.

I was working with at-risk youth with disabilities in juvenile detention, connecting them with their community and becoming more independent. I have extensive experience in supporting people with challenging behaviours and assisting them to gain skill in becoming independent.

EDUCATION & QUALIFICATIONS

- Open Licence
- First Aid & CPR
- Yellow Card & Blue Card
- 5 Years Disability Youth Experience

ABOUT ME

Hey there, my name's Kotuku!

New Zealand Born currently living in Springfield Lakes, Ipswich. I am married with 3 beautiful daughters who keep me on my toes. I love playing basketball and have a passion for martial arts. I love art, going to the gym, gaming and outdoor adventures.

People say I'm funny and a cool dude! I'm smart, charismatic and have a fun zest for life. My professional goal is to help people with a disability become motivated and inspired to achieved great things for our community.
